Essi advises clients on all real estate matters with a business-minded approach in order to help them reach the best possible outcome in large projects and in day-to-day business.

Essi has an extensive background in legal asset management. Prior to joining Hannes Snellman, she worked as a legal counsel in a leading real estate asset management company, supporting the asset management teams, leasing teams, transactions, and project development teams. Before that, Essi worked at another major Finnish law firm, where her practice focused on real estate transactions.
