Rabbe is a partner within the firm's M&A practice in Helsinki with a focus on infrastructure, energy and technology related deals. He joined the firm in 1999 and became a partner in 2007.

He has over 20 years of experience of corporate law and various private and public M&A deals, most of which have involved a cross-border element. Many of the deals have also involved either private equity funds directly or private equity backed companies.

Rabbe has a vast experience advising clients within the infrastructure, energy and technology sectors related deals, having for example advised on some of the largest Finnish energy distribution deals as well as in relation to planned Finnish nuclear power plant projects. He has also advised on a number of Finnish renewable energy transactions.

He has also considerable experience in advising clients in the defence and security sectors.

Rabbe is acting as an Officer and as a Member of the Advisory Board of the International Bar Association's M&A and Corporate Committee.
