Harri advises our clients in the field of taxation, particularly corporate and international taxation and transfer taxation. He has experience in tax structuring, including related advance ruling proceedings and other implementation assistance, and in assessing tax considerations in various private and public M&A transactions, with a special focus on real estate, private equity, infrastructure, and investment fund transactions. Harri also advises our clients on tax disputes.

Prior to joining Hannes Snellman, Harri worked as a tax manager at a Big 4 audit firm.
